VENTNOR
BOWLING CLUB

THE
FIRST 100 YEARS
(1886-1986)

by Ernest Turner

Ventnor Bowling Club –

“The First Hundred Years”

IN 1986, ON THE OCCASION OF THE CENTENARY OF THE FORMATION OF VENTNOR BOWLING CLUB, A BOOKLET WAS PRODUCED TO CELEBRATE THIS MILESTONE.

The person behind this project was the President at the time, Ernest (Ernie) Turner - incidentally, the father of our current Secretary, Phil Turner.

Ernie conducted an enormous amount of research into the goings-on of the Club and its various committees over those hundred years. Over the winter months, I shall be publishing extracts from the booklet, space permitting, giving an insight into how things were done in the early days.

Older readers will probably be familiar with some of the names associated with the Bowling Club in its formative years, none more so than Walter (Wally) Zuber, who originally came to Ventnor on holiday from Switzerland and became one of the most prominent businessmen in the town.....watch this space!
